 Pre-departure Checks Completed: YES Time of Departure: 10:30AM Time of Arrival: 12 PM
 Weather, Wind, and Sea Conditions: sunny, 15 kts, gusty, 2ft seas Events and Highlights of the Day The day began with Kristen, the mate of the day, playing everyone's favorite Irish jig. We all got up pretty quickly this morning because we were excited to practice our jibes on the way to Little Harbor. Plus, we had heard that the beach on Sandy Cay was beautiful! Jen and Heather made an awesome egg and cheese casserole for breakfast. After that we got underway and Will and Eric taught a hilarious lesson on Bernoulli's Principle. We thought the exciting part of our sail was over, but a pod of dolphins came up at the end and escorted us into the harbor! And as for the beach, it was even more BEAUTIFUL than everyone had said.

Events and Highlights of the Day The Fidji gang got hecka turnt. We took mad ~~W's~~ W's on the race to ~~Frellis~~ Frellis Bay to Angoda, although we had to wake up dumb early in the morning: 7:00 am.
We broke the fast with some lit breakfast buffet, and then we were off. The race was easy peasy from the get-go, we dubbed with no problems. After that we chilled for a couple of hours, but not before a fire sandwich lunch. Once our chilling was complete, we began our preparations for the stupid cool chili-cooking competition;

Events and Highlights of the Day We woke up this morning at 7:30 and Corinne made us french toast! After breakfast, we left Anegoda and sailed to Leverick Bay where we docked. Then, for lunch we had quesadillas. Then, we had to pass the cleaning inspection if we wanted to get our phones so we could call our parents. Cleaning the boat took a while but we finally finished, and then got to call our parents! After that, we went into Leverick Bay and went to some cute shops, a grocery store, and ate all of the food and snacks we got from the grocery store. Next, we went to a social and it was a lot of fun! We ate burgers, cookies, and then got on the dance floor! Finally we got a navigation lesson to prepare for challenge day tomorrow, where we take over and sail the boats ourselves! Then, we went to bed.

Events and Highlights of the Day Today the wonderfully civilious crew woke up at Norman Island. We had a slaps breakfast which consisted of cereal and bugels. We then motored to a small reef where we snorkled for a little. A tad later we sailed to Salt Island. We hiked up a little hill where I saw this huge black flying insect, it was like the size of a poodle. We then came back to the boat where we chilled and then later on showered. Lunch consisted of PBJ sandwiches and scrumptious mac and cheese while dinner was a lovely dish of pasta. We then took a "crew test!" and everyone passed so that's i.b. At the end of Events and Highlights of the Day Today was a fantastic day for the fidji crew! we had a bit of a line-in and didn't wake up until 8:00! After that, we ate toasted bagels & eggs, and cleaned the boat before walking around Scrub Island. Late in the morning, we dedocked from Scrub, and motored quickly over to long bay. There we made & ate delicious pizza & bagels during our relaxation time. However, relaxation was short lived, as we quickly began our olympic games on the beach. Although it may have appeared to a bystander that our crew struggled in some of the competitions, we bonded as a team and we certainly won in our hearts. After the strenuous olympic competitions, we had an opportunity to play watersports such as tubing, wakeboarding, & sailing picos and the colgate. When we returned, we ate a delicious BBQ on the beach, which our counselors had so kindly prepared. We eventually came back to Fidji for showers, boat clean, boat meeting & power down.
