 Pre-departure Checks Completed: YES Time of Departure: 10:30AM Time of Arrival: 12 PM
 Weather, Wind, and Sea Conditions: sunny, 15 kts, gusty, 2ft seas Events and Highlights of the Day The day began with Kristen, the mate of the day, playing everyone's favorite Irish jig. We all got up pretty quickly this morning because we were excited to practice our jibes on the way to Little Harbor. Plus, we had heard that the beach on Sandy Cay was beautiful! Jen and Heather made an awesome egg and cheese casserole for breakfast. After that we got underway and Will and Eric taught a hilarious lesson on Bernoulli's Principle. We thought the exciting part of our sail was over, but a pod of dolphins came up at the end and escorted us into the harbor! And as for the beach, it was even more BEAUTIFUL than everyone had said.

Events and Highlights of the Day: ~~Rescue divers~~ if we woke up and immediately had to start breakfast because the divers had to leave early. After breakfast we started to sail. we thought we were going to have a short sail of thirty minutes until we figured out we had to circumnavigate it. Halfway through our sail Alex told us we had to start tacking which means turning 90° into the wind. After doing that 7 times we had a smooth sail into Deadsman Cove. When we arrived we ate lunch and then went to the beach for watersports. Personally, I used a knee board but couldn't get up because the water was crazy choppy. After that we had a pretty standard night after that.
