 Weather, Wind, and Sea Conditions: sunny, 15 kts, gusty, 2ft seas

Events and Highlights of the Day The day began with Kristen, the mate of the day, playing everyone's favorite Irish jig. We all got up pretty quickly this morning because we were excited to practice our jibes on the way to Little Harbor. Plus, we had heard that the beach on Sandy Cay was beautiful! Jen and Heather made an awesome egg and cheese casserole for breakfast. After that we got underway and Will and Eric taught a hilarious lesson on Bernoulli's Principle. We thought the exciting part of our sail was over, but a pod of dolphins came up at the end and escorted us into the harbor! And as for the beach, it was even more BEAUTIFUL than everyone had said.

Events and Highlights of the Day We started our day at 7:00 am with a quick breakfast at Hodges Creek. We planned a de-docking before casting off ~~from the dock~~ the day. Once we got out to open water we did a lesson on raising the sails. After a few tries we had ~~success~~ success! As the skipper of the boat I sailed for most of the day, but everyone got a chance at the helm. Each camper had an opportunity to practice tacking on our catamaran ~~at the dock~~ ^{Grenade}. Later in the day we arrived at Cooper's island. Most of the boat went to scuba dive while the rest of the crew chilled on the beach! It was a great day!
