 Pre-departure Checks Completed: YES Time of Departure: 10:30AM Time of Arrival: 12 PM
 Weather, Wind, and Sea Conditions: sunny, 15 kts, gusty, 2ft seas

Events and Highlights of the Day The day began with Kristen, the mate of the day, playing everyone's favorite Irish jig. We all got up pretty quickly this morning because we were excited to practice our jibes on the way to Little Harbor. Plus, we had heard that the beach on Sandy Cay was beautiful! Jen and Heather made an awesome egg and cheese casserole for breakfast. After that we got underway and Will and Eric taught a hilarious lesson on Bernoulli's Principle. We thought the exciting part of our sail was over, but a pod of dolphins came up at the end and escorted us into the harbor! And as for the beach, it was even more BEAUTIFUL than everyone had said.

Events and Highlights of the Day We woke up early and got a "Mike talk" then went and got equipment and keepsakes. We successfully deduced our boat, and went into the channel for the first time. We jib sailed to Cooper Island and ate sandwiches while under way. We also had lessons on raising sails, tacking, and mooring. Although it took a few attempts we successfully moved without having to protest. Next we went snorkeling or scuba diving where we either went to the RMS Rhony or snorkeled cistern. We all had a fun dinner of burritos, and then did chores. Finally we had our boat leaving where we did a hot seat, and rose, rock, throw.

Events and Highlights of the Day We got up at ^{Pirates} Bay on Norman Island and sent our divers out to do diving and get cartfish. The rest of the crew sailed to Village Cay on Tortola, where we practiced facking.
After arriving at docks, we had a cleaning inspection when we passed and it resulted in us to talk to our parents. Then the boat split up, some went out on trunk but around the island while others went shopping. We wrapped up the day with a social on the docks, where everyone went to talk other's boats.
We also celebrated Kelley's birthday with a brownie cake topped with cream cheese icing. Yum!
