Events and Highlights of the Day The day began with Kristen, the mate of the day, playing everyone's favorite Irish jig. We all got up pretty quickly this morning because we were excited to practice our jibes on the way to Little Harbor. Plus, we had heard that the beach on Sandy Cay was beautiful! Jen and Heather made an awesome egg and cheese casserole for breakfast. After that we got underway and Will and Eric taught a hilarious lesson on Bernoulli's Principle. We thought the exciting part of our sail was over, but a pod of dolphins came up at the end and escorted us into the harbor! And as for the beach, it was even more BEAUTIFUL than everyone had said.

Sunset Fleet got to enjoy it. We then set sail over to dead man's bay where we practiced a bit of tacking. We did more turtle Events and Highlights of the Day ~~●~~ After we woke up around 7, we had GREAT cinnamon rolls (thank you Ethan & Avery). Advanced swba left for another dive and everyone else left on the boat went for a hike. When we got to the top, max made a bet with luka. If max could throw a rock from the top into the ocean then he could either own the boat or get 2 watersports sessions. Nobody thought he would be able to but he did it. We then played games like where the wind blows & rock/paper/scissors tournaments. After the hike, Nicola & I made a very nice, bland lunch of potatoes & pasta. We then sailed to docks & we picked up a random man because his boat stopped working. Docking the boat was very hard and we almost crashed (my fault lol). Events and Highlights of the Day Today we started our day at Great Bay on Peter Island. I ^(Sofia) wake up and found out that my Ipod fell in the ocean, ⁱⁿ in the net, a bit disappointing. We then began to sail to Long Bay. We were racing against all the other boats. During our sail we had a MAJOR distraction. A HUGE bug flew out of the spin lock holder and into Caroline's Jockey, so scary. We ended up beating Hully Gully 3rd place because we lowered our sails before them. We then got ready for olympics, we all got dressed in blue. We ^{came} ~~won~~ in second of the relay and lost the tug of war. We then hung out at the beach and had a wonderful BBQ. We are now having our second to last boat meeting (awww).
